PLAYER SKETCHES

ENDS:

MARVIN STOSS, 21, Great Bend, senior, lettered for the Tigers in 1955 and 1956. Does a good job on defense. Should prove valuable at the end post this year.

MAC THOMPSON, 20, Goodland, sophomore, lettered last year as a freshman at fullback. In high school was All-League in his junior year. For Fort Hays State this year he will bolster the end position.

NEIL DREILING, 20, Hays junior, big 6-2, 190-pounder should give strength to end slot. Played freshman ball at K-State two years ago. Was an all-stater on Hays High team.

DON FRALEY, Chester, Nebr., junior, lettered at Peru, Nebr., college and Fairbury, Nebr., junior college. A 6-5, 210-pound end, Fraley should give strength to that position.

PLAYER SKETCHES

TACKLES:

DAN JOHNSON, 21, Hays senior, played on Hays high school's undefeated team of 1953 and has lettered three years at Fort Hays State. This should prove Johnson's finest year as one of the Tiger standouts.

JEROME BOOR, 24, Odin sophomore, lettered last fall at center for the Tigers. Played football with the I Corps in Korea while in the Army. Was injured late in the season last year. Should be one of the Tigers' outstanding linemen this season.

PAUL RIEDEL, 19, Ellis junior, lettered at center in 1955 and 1956 at Fort Hays State. Played outstanding ball last fall before being injured. Should develop into one of the conference's better tackles this year.

LEROY BRUNGARDT, 19, Hays sophomore, was an outstanding tackle on the Hays St. Joseph's Cadet grid team. Won a provisional letter last fall at St. Benedict's. Transferred at semester last year to Fort Hays State. His aggressiveness won him a starting spot in last spring's practice.

NORMAN PFEIFER, 23, Hays sophomore, was on Kansas-State freshman team last year. A 6-4, 240-pound tackle, Pfeifer will be fighting for a starting position this fall.

PLAYER SKETCHES

GUARDS:

MERL ALTMAN, 21, Almena senior, lettered last fall at Fort Hays State. Earned two letters at Garden City junior college. A 5-7, 196-pounder and fast. Should be a standout in the conference. Altman is married.

WARREN SIEK, 18, Ness City sophomore, was a freshman squad member last year. Ran 220, and 880 in high school track. Should be one of conference's fastest linemen.

DENNIS STEGMAN, 21, Ness City junior, a service veteran, played freshman ball for Wichita university. Was out for spring training and was a starting guard.

DICK KNIGHT, 21, from Chicago, Ill., now calls Dodge City his home. A second-semester sophomore, he lettered two years at Dodge City junior college. Should be a valuable lineman.

PLAYER SKETCHES

CENTERS:

HOWARD RUNFT, 23, Herington senior, back from service. Has seen lots of football at Fort Hays State. Is a stocky, 5-7, 190-pounder with drive. Should see plenty of action this season.

PAT SHIPMAN, 21, McPherson sophomore, lettered four years at Plainville high school. Was a starting lineman in last spring's practice. Is fast and rugged. Should be as good a player as his brother, Bill, who won all-conference honors in 1955.

QUARTERBACKS:

RONNIE LEONARD, 20, Quinter sophomore, played freshman ball at K-State last fall. Was a spark plug in spring training at Fort Hays State. Leonard bears watching as a potential CIC backfield great. Last spring he performed at quarterback, halfback and fullback.

JIM HOOTEN, 19, Wellington sophomore, won All-League honors on Wellington high school team. Played for Hutchinson junior college last fall. A good ball handler and passer as well as a defensive man, Hooten should be an asset to the Tigers.

PLAYER SKETCHES

HALFBACKS:

LESTER HERRMAN, 21, Antonino senior, has lettered twice at Fort Hays State after successful high school play with the St. Joseph's Cadets. Was injured near end of last season. Should be a big help defensively this year.

DARRELL HILDEBRAND, 19, Hill City sophomore, lettered last year when a freshman. Was a regular starter. Played outstanding defense last season. His offense has improved and he'll be one to watch this fall

JIM MASKA, 20, Hays junior, lettered at Fort Hays State in 1955 while a freshman. Spent a semester at K-State last fall. Also a track and basketball man, Maska will be a break-away threat.

AL NORTON, 22, Cimarron junior, earned two letters at Dodge City Juco. A speedy ball handler, Norton is also a fine defensive player. Al is married and has two girls.

PLAYER SKETCHES

FULLBACK:

CHUCK VERNON, Norcatur sophomore, played freshman ball for Wichita university. A 5-10, 200-pounder, Vernon is tough both offensively and defensively. This aggressive fullback earned a starting spot in spring training.

FRESHMEN:

PHILLIP ALTMAN, 18, Alma, brother of Merl. Four-year letterman in high school. Will probably be a guard.

DICK ERICKSON, 18 Clay Center, three-year high school letterman. Another guard.

PETE GABEL, 18, Ness City, three-year prep school letterman. Will try out for quarterback position.

BILL JEWELL, 17, Goodland, two-year letterman at Sherman Community high school. Will be shooting for a starting spot at tackle.

LARRY KINION, 18, Smith Center, three-year letterman in high school. A prospective center.

FRED KOCH, 18, Ellinwood, three-year high school letterman. Will be out for a halfback spot.

PLAYER SKETCHES

MORE FRESHMEN:

JIM LEE, 18, Cummings, lettered two years for Atchison Co. Community high school. Will be out for the guard post.

RICHARD MAI, 18, Wakeeney, was a two-year letterman at Trego Co. high school.

MELDEAN MOORE, 19, Smith Center, four-year letterman in prep school. A halfback prospect.

ARLAN SCHEUERMAN, 19, Alexander, lettered twice at Alexander High. Out for a spot at tackle.

HAROLD WASINGER, 18, Wakeeney, earned two letters at Trego Co. high school. Will be a fullback prospect.

JOE WEISS, 18, Ford, four-year high school letterman. Another prospective fullback.

RUDY ZIMBLEMAN, 19, Goodland, three-year letterman at Sherman Community high school in Goodland.

OTHER SPORTS

Besides football Fort Hays State competes in basketball, cross country, swimming, wrestling, gymnastics, golf, tennis and track.

Gymnastics, track, basketball and wrestling are discussed under the coaches in COACHING STAFF elsewhere in this brochure. Here's a little information on the others:

SWIMMING: Fort Hays State finished their first competitive year in this sport last spring with the CIC championship.

CROSS COUNTRY: Under track coach Alex Francis, Fort Hays State cross country trackmen took second in the CIC and runner-up spot in the NAIA.

GOLF and TENNIS: Both coached last year by basketball mentor Cade Suran, these have been varsity sports at Fort Hays State for a number of years. Last spring the Tigers finished fourth in the CIC in both golf and tennis.
